A scale is a series of steps between two fixed musical points. These two fixed points are always the same note, but in different octaves. We call these points "root notes". How we get from the lower root note to the higher root note is called 'a scale'. Listen to this example. (I use two G notes in this example, but it could be any note.

Learn Guitar Scales In 8 Easy Steps

The two scales we've looked at so far are what we call diatonic scales. This means that they are in 'a key' and the first note of the scale is the tonic. Diatonic scales are also heptonic (which means they have seven notes) with two intervals of a semitone (half step) and five intervals that are tones (whole steps).
