He said, "This is a soul-winner's crown.". The crown was most beautiful and human language could never describe it. He said to me, "My people are so careless and indifferent. This crown is for every one of my children. I speak and say, 'Go speak to this one' or 'pray for that one,' but my people are too busy.

Hagin condemned other hair-brained gimmicks designed to trick audiences into emptying their wallets. He was especially incensed when a preacher told his radio listeners that he would take their prayer requests to Jesus' empty tomb in Jerusalem and pray over them there—if donors included a special love gift.
